The

Personal

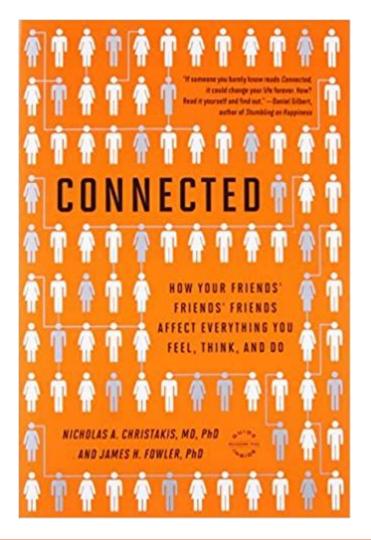

ls Political "Just as ripples spread out when a single pebble is dropped into water, the actions of individuals can have far-reaching effects."

--Dalai Lama--

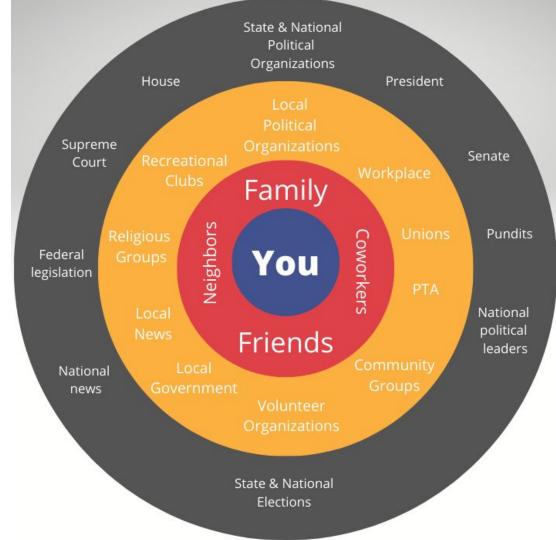

Three Degrees of Influence Rule

"Everything we do or say tends to ripple through our network, having an impact on our friends (one degree), our friends' friends (two degrees), and even our friends' friends' friends (three degrees)."

Levels of Political Influence

Discussing politics with people in our personal sphere of influence is the most effective way for us to make a difference.

1) Who would you most like to influence in your personal sphere?

2) What's stopping you?

Smart Politics Defined

- Advocacy method
- Person-to-person
- Conversation-based
- Psychologicallyinformed
- Grounded in democratic values

Why do Smart Politics conversations work?

- Respect autonomy
- Avoid triggering defensiveness
- Bypass the Belief Defense System
- Meet the other person's emotional needs (not yours)
- Increase rationality, curiosity, empathy, self-reflection, and open-mindedness

Change Conversation Pyramid (CCP) Change Conversation Cycle (CCC)

Make them feel safe-enough to talk with you

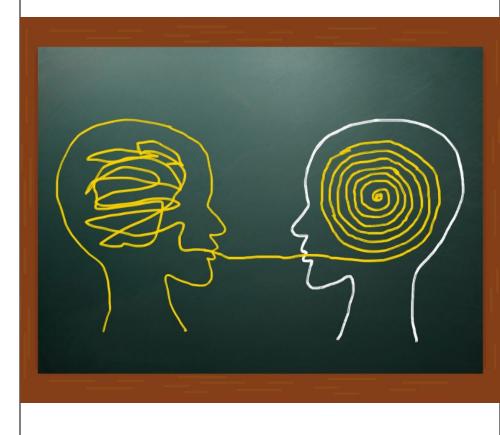

Connection

Earn their trust so they will take risks

Comprehension

Learn their point of view so they feel heard

Compassion

Show you care so they will listen to your perspective

Gently encourage rethinking so they can update their beliefs

Exercise #4

- Give an example of something that worked or didn't work in a past conversation
- 2) Explain the outcome using the Change Conversation Pyramid

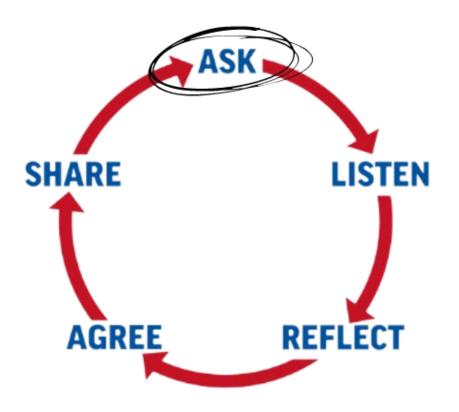

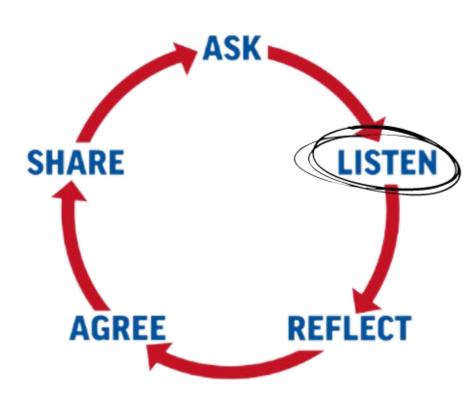

- Open-ended
- Nonjudgmental
- Curious

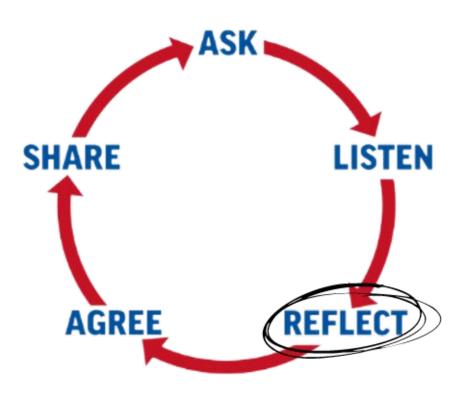

Listen

- Pay attention
- Seek to understand
- Don't interrupt
- Let them talk as long as they want

Reflect

- Summarize
- Name feelings
- Acknowledge implicit content

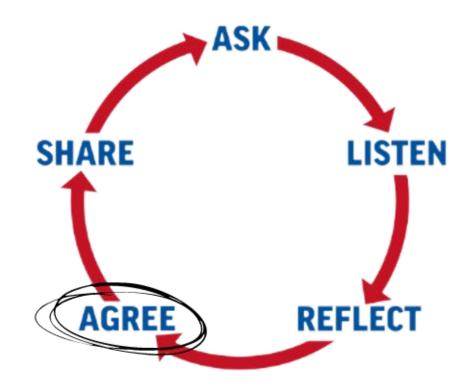

Avoid policies, politicians, parties, and facts

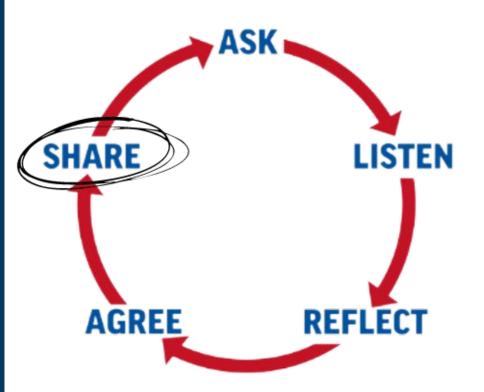

Don't argue with facts or reason

Shift the narrative with a personal story

Get idealistic

Go meta
